vs.

ROBERT LOWER,

Defendant.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service within the State of Idaho, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

Phyllis Gensler, Plaintiff, -vs- Norvil D. Gensler, Defendant.	Action No. 2500. DECREE.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the14th day of November, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Norvil D. Gensler, wasduly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon him in the State of California, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy, or otherewe, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are tru to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about some day during the month of November, 1944, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant for more than one year preceding the commencement of such action wilfully neglected and refused to provide for the plaintiff the common necessities of life, he having the ability to so provide for her, and compelled her to live upon the charity of her friends and upon her own labor, notwithstanding that he was abundantly able to provide for and support the plaintiff; that such failure of the defendant to so support and provide for the plaintiff the common necessaries of life was not due to any act or thing on the part of plaintiff and was against her will and without her consent; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the parties to this action, either in the State of Idaho or elsewhere; that there is no child the issue of said marriage; that plaintiff's name prior to her marriage to the defendant was Phyllis Ross and that she desires to be restored to such former name.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing betwee the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of wilful nonsupport and failure to provide for the plaintiff by the defendant; and that the plaintiff should be restored to her former name of Phyllis Ross.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Phyllis Gensler, and the defendant, Norvil D. Gensler, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of wilful nonsupport and failure to provide for the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

Plaintiff,

-vs-

Isal M. Hale,

Defendant.

Action No. 2502

Filed and entered
Nov. 14, 1947
Lillian Wilson
Clerk

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 14th day of November, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Isal M. Hale, was duly and regularly served with process herein by publication of another summons in The Payette Valley Sentinel for the time and in the manner provided by law and the mailing of a true copy of said another summons attached to a copy of the complaint herein, and that she has failed to appear in any manner, or at all, herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon her, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife until the latter part of March, 1946, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that more than one year immediately preceding the commencement of this action the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vows, wilfully and without cause deserted and abandoned the plaintiff and ever since has and still continues to so wilfully and without cause desert and abandon plaintiff, and to live separate and apart from him without any sufficient cause, without any reason, and against the will and consent of the plaintiff; that during a great part of the period of such marriage during the time the parties hereto were living together as husband and wife, the defendant treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel manner and caused him great mental suffering, humiliation and shame, all as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and that such treatment of the plaintiff by the defendant was without cause or reason on the part of the plaintiff as he conducted himself toward the defendant as a husband should conduct himself toward his wife, and were calculated by the defendant to and the same did cause him great mental suffering, humiliation and shame; that plaintiff owns certain real property, described in said complaint and hereinafter described, located in Payette County, Idaho, which was purchased by him with money inherited by him from the estate of his father and which was at the time of purchase the sole and separate property of the plaintiff and has so remained and now is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, and which should be decreed to him herein as his sole and separate property free and clear of any and all community interest and any and all other interest of the defendant; that there is no child the issue of the plaintiff and defendant; and that there is no community property of the parties to this action whatever.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment of the plaintiff by the defendant, and on the further grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; and that the above mentioned real property should be decreed to be the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, free and clear of and from any and all community interest, and any and all or other interest of the defendant therein.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Chester Caleb Hale, and the defendant, Isal M. Hale, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment of the plaintiff by the defendant, and on the further grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all of the obligations of such marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 14th day of November 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Edna Faye Comb was duly and regularly served with process herein by due service upon her personally in the State of California, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon her, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of the said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the plaintiff and defendant ceased

Clerk,

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 14th day of November, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Melba M. Galloway, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon her in the State of California, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon her, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 24th day of April, 1947, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated the plaintiff in a cruel manner during a considerable period of such marriage and finally told him that she did not care for him whatever and had no interest in him and wanted nothing more to do with him, and finally became nothing more than a housekeeper for him, none of the affection ordinarily existing been husband and wife being present; that such action was calculated by the defendant to and the same did cause the plaintiff great mental suffering and humiliation; that none of such actions of the defendant toward the plaintiff were caused by any act or word on the part of the plaintiff; that the plaintiff made an honest effort to make a success of the marriage; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the parties to this action excepting household goods that were used in the home of said parties and a 1935 Chevrolet two-door automobile, and which said personal property should be awarded to the plaintiff herein, the same to become and be his sole his separate property; and that there was no child the issue of such marriage.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; and that the above mentioned personal property should be awarded and decreed to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Robert M. Galloway, and the defendant, Melba M. Galloway, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 15th day of December, , 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Edward D. Munger, was duly and regularly served with process herein and thereafter appeared by his attorneys by filing a demurrer to plaintiff's complaint, and which said attorneys so appearing for him thereafter served notice of withdrawal from said case and did so withdraw and thereafter due and proper notice was served upon the defendant by registered mail to appear in person or by attorneys and that said defendant has failed to appear in person or by attorney and more than thirty days have elapsed since such service of such notice to so appear, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not now in the service of the United States, either army, navy, or otherwise, nor had he been so at any time during the pendency of this action, having been filed herein, and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered, and thereupon the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of the said defendant, and proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in sppport of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That for more than one year preceding the commencement of this action the defendant wilfully and without cause failed, neglected and refused to provide plaintiff and the minor children of the marriage with the common necessaries of life, he having the ability to so provide for them; that the defendant treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel manner, resulting in great mental and physical suffering, humiliation and shame, by constantly accusing her of being untrue to him; by telling her that he did not want anything to do with her; by his actions toward other women; all as alleged in the complaint; all of which acts were calculated by the defendant to cause the plaintiff suffering, both mental and physical, and all of which were without cause on the part of the plaintiff;

That there born as the issue of said marriage the following children: Jaunita Munger, Jerry Munger, Gordon Munger, Rowena Munger, and Kenneth Munger, each of whom is now with and being supported and cared for by the plaintiff excepting Gordon Munger who is with the defendant and now outside the State of Idaho, and that plaintiff desires and should have the care, custody and control of the minor children now with her, but that there should be no order as to the child so now with the defendant; that the real and personal property described in the complaint herein should be awarded and decreed to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property; that the plaintiff should be awarded the sum of $10.00 per month for each of the four children now so in her custody and under her control, and that she should also be given judgment against the defendant for the sum of $125.00 attorney fees herein.

The Court therefore finds that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that she she should be awarded the care, custody and control of the four minor children of the marriage who are now in her care and under her control, and that the real and personal property mentioned and described in the complaint herein should be awarded and decreed to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and that the defendant should be required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $10.00 per month for each of the said minor children now so in her custody and under her control, and the further sum of $125.00 attorney fee herein.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Lavella M. Munger, and the defendant, Edward D. Munger, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be and she is hereby given the care, custody and control of the following named minor children of said marriage, to-wit: Jaunita Munger, Jerry Munger, Rowena Munger and Kenneth Munger, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit such children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $10.00 per month for each of said children so awarded to the plaintiff herein, beginning forthwith, from the date of this decree, and continuing each month for each child until such child shall have attained lawful age, if such child shall live so long or until such child shall marry if marriage is entered into before attaining legal age. The above matter came on regularly to be heard in open court at Weiser, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him; and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of wilful desertiom and non-support, and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true;

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 20th day of December, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant appeared only by his general appearance for the purpose of refusing to plead further.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had entered his general appearance, waived service of summons, waived all rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and refused to plead further, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and wilful neglect of the plaintiff as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and the complaint on file herein as required by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear, answer, or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than six months has not been, in military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Honorable L. E. Klemmer, Judge of the above entitled Court sitting without a jury at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 5th day of December, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorneys, Merrill & Merrill, The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons in Bannock County, Idaho, and that thereafter he made and filed a personal and involuntary appearance whereby he submitted to the full jurisdiction of the Court, waived the statutory time within which to plead, declined to answer plaintiff's complaint, and consented that a default might be entered and said cause set for hearing without further notice to him.

It further appeared to the Court that the defendant is not in the military, naval, or marine service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and that his default for failing to plead to plaintiff's complaint has been duly and regularly entered.

It further appeared from the evidence offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that a decree of divorce should be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

The Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises, NOW, THEREFORE:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage now existing between the plaintiff, Elicia Marie Cotterell Ralphs, and the defendant, Arthur Munns Ralphs, contracted by said parties on or about the 14th day of February, 1940, at Ogden, Utah, be and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are freed from all obligations thereof, and that each of said parties is restored to the status of a single person.

REATHA BASTA,
Plaintiff,
vs.
FRANK J. BASTA,
Defendant.

/3461/

DEC 1 1942

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come regularly on for hearing this day the plaintiff appeared in person with her attorneys, Whitla and Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented. The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons and Complaint in this case was duly and regularly made upon the defendant personally outside of the State of Idaho, in accordance with the statutes in such case made and provided, and the orders of this Court duly made herein and due proof of the making of said service has been duly made and filed herein.

After the expiration of the time allowed by law for the defendant to appear, and the defendant having failed to appear or file any answer, the plaintiff duly filed an affidavit showing that the defendant was not in the federal service as a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or any military service of the United States whatever, as designated by the act of Congress, and thereafter the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

After hearing the evidence introduced, the findings of fact having been waived, the Court finds and decrees:

That the plaintiff and defendant were married at Walla Walla, Washington, September 29, 1942, and ever since have been and still are husband and wife, and that the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the State of Idaho, for more than six weeks prior to the commencement of this action and still is such resident.

11.

That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and has inflicted upon her great and grievous pain and mental suffering in that he has pursued a policy of abuse towards the plaintiff in using vile and abusive language towards her in the presence of her friends, all of which became a matter of public notariety to such an extent that it inflicted upon the plaintiff great and grievous mental pain and suffering to such an extent that it has rendered it impossible for the plaintiff and defendant to live together as husband and wife, and that by reason thereof the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty. The Court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have no children and no property, and that this is a proper case for the plaintiff's maiden name of Reatha Rasmussen to be restored to her, and that she is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant, and the restoration of her maiden name.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, REATHA BASTA, and the defendant, FRANK J. BASTA, be and the same hereby are vacated, annulled, dissolved, and set aside and the plaintiff be granted a decree of absolute divorce

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF KOOTENAI

13386 DEC 1 1947

PANSY PARRISH,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LEE PARRISH,

Defendant.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service outside of the State of Idaho and within the State of Washington, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, PANSY PARRISH, and the defendant, LEE PARRISH, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of willful neglect.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that each of the parties are hereby forever barred from ever asserting any right or interest in or to the property of the other, whether now owned or hereafter acquired by the other, including the right of dower, homestead and inheritance.

Done in open Court this 1st day of December, A. D., 1947.

vs.

RUTH E. MUNSTEDT,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appeared with his attorneys, Whitla and Knudson, and the defendant was represented by Clay Spear.

The Court finds that due service has been made upon the defendant who has entered her appearance herein and filed an answer and cross complaint. Upon the case being called the defendant withdrew said cross complaint and refused to appear further in the case. Thereupon the Court proceeded with the hearing of the case. Findings of fact were waived.

Upon the hearing the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of Kootenai County, Idaho, for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action and still is such resident. That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff and defendant have one child, which is in the custody of the defendant in the State of Washington and not within the jurisdiction of this Court, and that by reason thereof this Court has no jurisdiction to take the custody from the defendant, and that the defendant is entitled to retain the custody of said child.

The The Court further finds that the plaintiff is able to and should pay the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30) per month for the support of said child until it becomes of age, and that it should stay with the mother until it becomes old enough to decide for itself.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Henry Munstedt, be and he hereby is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant/Ruth E. Munstedt on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff and defendant have no community property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the child, Robert Alan Munstedt, remain in the custody of the defendant, and that the plaintiff, Henry Munstedt, do pay to the defendant for the care, custody, and support of said child the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30)/per month commencing January 1, 1948 and payable on the first day of each and every month thereafter, until said child reaches the age of majority, unless otherwise ordered by this Court.

DEC 12 1947

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appeared in person with her attorneys, Whitla and Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented, although the Court finds that due and legal personal service of the Summons and Complaint was duly and regularly made upon the defendant in Kootenai County, Idaho.

After the expiration of the time allowed by law for the defendant to appear and answer, and no appearance having been made, the plaintiff duly filed an affidavit showing that the defendant was not in the Federal Service as a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or any military service whatever of the United States, as designated by the act of Congress, and thereafter the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered by the clerk of this Court.

After hearing the evidence introduced, and findings of fact having been waived, the Court finds and decrees:--

That plaintiff and defendant were married at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, July 6, 1946, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife, and that the plaintiff was married before and her name was Ardith Maxine Roosevelt, and that she has a daughter, Sharon Diane Roosevelt, now aged four years, living with her. That the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six months immediately preceeding the commencement of this action and now is such resident.

That the defendant, since his marriage to the plaintiff, has indulged in a continuous course of drinking, abusing the plaintiff and treating her in a cruel and abusive manner, which has continued to such an extent that she is afraid of him and is afraid of him inflicting upon her great and grievous physical pain and suffering, that he has done so and that he has left her on several occasions with the intention of not returning, but heretofore has returned, and that his actions have been such that they have become a matter of public notoriety and known to plaintiff's friends and acquaintances to such an extent that it has caused her great and grievous mental pain and suffering, and that it is no longer possible for the plaintiff and defendant to live together as husband and wife, and that by reason thereof the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED,ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved, and set aside, and the plaintiff is hereby granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff's former name of Ardith Maxine Roosevelt be and the same hereby is restored to her.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of Three Hundred Thirty Six and 97/100 Dollars ($336.97) in full settlement for alimony, and the plaintiff's interest in community property and that the defendant shall also pay the further sum of One Hundred Sixteen and 90/100 Dollars ($116.90) for attorneys's fees and costs, and that the sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) shall be paid within ten days from this date and the remaining sum of Two Hundred Three and 87/100 Dollars ($203.87) shall be paid in four monthly payments one, two, three, and four months from the date of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall be permitted to sell the automobile belonging to plaintiff and defendant and that the plaintiff shall sign the certificate of title thereto so as to waive her interest in said car upon her being paid the full payment of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00).

Defendant.

DECREE

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before me at my chambers in the City of Burley, County of Cassia and State of Idaho and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his witnesses and the defendant appearing not, and from examination of the records and files in said cause the court finding that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Vicil Relief Act, and it further appearing to the court that the said defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that thedefault of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein and that it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers.

Wherefore, witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of said plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to said testimony free of all legal objections thereto and the court being fully advised in the premises finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of his action has been an actual and bone fide resident of the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho.

The court further finds that there is no issue born of said marriage.

The court finds that the said plaintiff and defendant prior to the filing of plaintiff's action agreed upon a distribution of the community property acquired by said plaintiff and defendant during said coverture, and which said settlement was by the court ratified and approved.

And the court finds that under and pursuant to said division of community property that the plaintiff herein became the owner as his sole, separate and individual property of the following described personal property: One Model B John Deere tractor together with cultivator and equipment for beans and beets; also bean and beet planter; one Oliver 2-way plow; one bean puller; one 3-section harrow; one 1940 Plymouth automobile; household goods; two horses; one saddle horse; one milch cow; one hog; one calf; 15 chickens and other miscellaneous farm machinery and equipment.

The court further finds that for more than a year next preceding the commencement of plaintiff's complaint the said defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner in that the said defendant has at divers and numerous times advised this plaintiff that she had ceased to love or care for him and during said time ceased to occupy the residence as the wife of the said plaintiff, and has by virtue of her acts and various conduct has caused this plaintiff grave mental anguish and physical suffering, and the court finds that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the court being fully advised in the premises and having heretofore made his findings, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff Dale B. Garner, and the defendant Ann Garner, be and are hereby dissolved and a decree of divorce be and is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Dale B. Garner, and against the defendant, Ann Garner.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, Dale G. Garner, be decreed to have and to hold as his sole, separate and individual property the following described personal property: One Model B. John Deere tractor together with cultivator and equipment for beans and beets; bean and beet planter and equipment therewith; one Oliver 2-way plow and equipment therewith; one bean puller and equipment therewith; one 3-section harrow; one 1940 Plymouth automobile; all household goods; two horses; one saddle horse; one milch cow; one hog; one calf; 15 chickens and miscellaneous farm equipment.

2. That the plaintiff be and is hereby decreed to be the owner of as his sole, separate and individual property the above described personal property; that the said defendant be and is hereby decreed to be without any right, title, interest or claim in or to the above described personal property, and that the said plaintiff be and is hereby decreed to be the sole owner thereof as his separate and individual property and estate.

The Court then proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises, and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conslusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Mary Jean Burdick, and the defendant, James Carr Burdick, be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. The plaintiff is hereby awarded the sole and permanent custody of the unborn child of plaintiff and defendant.

3. The defendant is hereby ordered and required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $200.00 to apply upon the expense of her confinement and IT IS ORDERED that the plaintiff do have and take judgment against the defendant for said amount.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Plaintiff,

vs.

Leota M. Rickabaugh,
Defendant.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing at Driggs, Idaho, this 22nd day of September, 1947, before the Honorable C. J. Taylor, Judge of the Ninth Judicial District of Idaho, in and for the county of Teton, in open Court, sitting without a jury, and plaintiff being present in Court and represented by S. H. Atchley, his attorney of Record, of Driggs, Idaho, and the defendant being neither present in Court nor represented by counsel, and the said defendant's default having been duly entered herein as of August 15, 1947, as permitted by law, and the complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced on the part of plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in his complaint.

The plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and examined in relation to the averments contained in the complaint of plaintiff, and the Court finds from the testimony that the allegeations therein contained are true and are sustained by the evidence, free from all exceptions and objections as to its relevancy, competency and materiality; that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce upon the ground of desertion as prayed for in his said complaint.

Whereupon, the testimony having been concluded, the cause was submitted to the Court for final determination, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises;

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Stephen E. Rickabaugh and the defendant Leota M. Rickabaugh be, and the same

DEC 30 1947

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 26th day of December, 1947, at the hour of Two o'clock P. M., before the Honorable James W. Porter, District Judge. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. W. Taylor, esquire, and the defendant failed to appear either in person or by attorney.

Defendant having been duly and regularly served with process in this action, and having filed her written acknowledgment of service of summons and waiver of time to plead, and having consented that her default be entered forthwith, and her default having been duly entered by the Clerk of this Court, witnesses were introduced in behalf of plaintiff, who also testified in his own behalf.

The Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the said plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff's prayer that defendant's maiden name of Shirley Herrick should be restored:

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they hereby are, dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant be, and she hereby is, restored to her maiden name of Shirley Herrick.

Entered DEC 31 1947

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 31st day of December, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it appearing from the files herein that pursuant to affidavit and order, personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was made on the defendant outside the State of Idaho, to-wit, in the Panama Canal Zone, on the 10th day of December, 1947; it appearing further that defendant has not made any appearance in this action since the date of said service and that his default for failure to appear and plead has been entered by the Clerk of our Court; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ORDERED that said entry of default be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to her residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties, that there are no children born of said marriage and no community property, and that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction of grevious mental suffering upon her, are all true.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff, MARGARET M. MANGUN, and the defendant, JOHN C. MANGUN, be dissolved, and they are hereby dissolved; that said parties be, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in this Court in Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the Court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of exteme cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 12th day of December, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process personally and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the clerk for his failure to appear. Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, from which it appears and the court finds that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately last past has been a resident of the State of Idaho. The court further finds and adjudges that the defendant is not now in the Military Service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person; that the plaintiff be awarded the custody care, and control of the minor children, namely, Donna Lorraine Stenbakken, and Sheryl Darlene, and that the defendant is required ordered and directed, to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said minor children the sum of $50.00 per month, and that the community property of plaintiff and defendant is awarded to the plaintiff and the separate property of plaintiff is hereby decreed her sole and separate property. The plaintiff is hereby given judgment in the sum of $125.00 for said attorney fee, together with plaintiff's costs incurred herein.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day pursuant to an order of the Court entered herein which order is based upon a written stipulation signed by the attorneys of record for the respective parties, and filed herein, wherein it is stipulated that this cause may be heard and considered by the Court, upon its merits, this day.

The Defendant and Cross-Complainant appeared in person and with her attorneys of record, Wm. S. Hawkins and E. T. Knudson, and the Cross-Defendant appeared by his attorneys of record, H. J. Hull and Chase E. Horning.

Competent evidence was introduced on behalf of the Defendant and Cross-Complainant herein under the Defendant's Cross-Complaint, but the Plaintiff and Cross-Defendant offered no evidence whatever in support of Plaintiff's Complaint. After considering the record and files in this cause and hearing and considering the evidence introduced on behalf of the Cross-Complainant the Court finds that this Court has jurisdiction of the parties to this action and has due jurisdiction to hear and consider this cause upon its merits at this time, and the Court further finds that the Cross-Complainant is entitled to a Decree of Divorce herein.

The Court further finds that the "Property Settlement Agreement" entered into and executed by the parties to this action bearing date the 31st day of December, A. D., 1947, an executed copy of which is marked "Exhibit A" and admitted in evidence in these proceedings, is a fair, just and equitable settlement between the parties to this action regarding the community property belonging to these parties and also of the obligation of each party to the other, and further that said "Property Settlement Agreement" should be approved and confirmed.

The Court further finds that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of the attorneys for the Cross-Complainant,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Defendant, Virginia Savich De LaPlante, and the Plaintiff, Albert J. De LaPlante, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside, and that the said Defendant and Cross-Plaintiff, Virginia Savich De LaPlante, is hereby granted an absolute Decree of Divorce from said Plaintiff and Cross-Defendant, upon the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant and Cross-Complainant is hereby restored to her maiden name, to-wit: Virginia Savich and to the status of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff and Cross-Defendant, Albert J.
